Dear Pfenning's Food Box Community,

Here we are with our last delivery run for this year. And what a year it has been!

We cannot overstress how pleased we are to offer our organic home delivery service to our nearby and farther away community, now heading into its 24th year. Although home delivery in itself may no longer be unique, you will be hard-pressed to find any such local service provided with as much genuine dedication and expertise as ours. The same may also be said for our Store which has been around for even longer – since 1993 when Almut took over the Pfenning's Farm Store and set the foundation for Pfenning's Organic & More. Both our daughters, Barnhild and Aurélie, are now actively working in the Store to carry on the torch and our family tradition.
